AGENDA ITEM # 3

TO: Public Arts Commission
FROM: Jon Maginot, Staff Liaison
SUBJECT: Los Altos Bike Rack Design Competition

RECOMMENDATION:

Discuss next steps for the Los Altos Bike Rack Design Competition

---

BACKGROUND

The Public Arts Commission (PAC) recently requested submissions for the Los Altos Bike Rack Design Competition. Submissions were due to the City on November 23, 2015. The City received 73 entries which were displayed at the Main Library. Members of the public submitted their choices for designs to be installed in Los Altos.

DISCUSSION

At the January 28, 2016 PAC meeting, a jury consisting of the PAC and members of the public prioritized the following designs to be considered for placement:

1. 'Downtown Dog' by Judi Parrish
2. 'Cup of Joe' by Kacey Fitzpatrick
3. '@LosAltos' by Jan Davis
4. 'Butterfly' by Jean Struthers
5. 'Chat' by Rick Lewis
6. 'Ice Cream O'licious' by Jan Davis
7. 'Birds of Color' by Los Altos Art Docents

The entries listed are attached.

Staff is working to get cost estimates for the identified designs.

@LosAltos

The "@" symbol today is iconic for things related to modern electronic communication. As an art form, the @ symbol was inducted into the Museum of Modern Art in their permanent collection. It communicated "elegance, economy, intellectual transparency, and a sense of the possible future directions that are embedded in the arts of our time."

For these reasons, the @ symbol seemed appropriate use for the bike rack competition merging art and the technological roots of many bay area tech entrepreneurs.

Ice-Cream O licious!

Who doesn't like ice cream! It's one of those year-round delights enjoyed by children and adults alike. It represents summer fun, birthdays or special celebrations. I chose the color pink for the classic ice cream flavors strawberry, or pink peppermint. It's hard to eat ice cream without the occasional drip that runs down your cone pooling to the base. This is for all those ice cream shops in town, and previous ones from a not too distant past, like Clint's on First Street, and Shaw's that once graced Main Street.
